

LEADER IN TRAINING (LIT)

The Blue Mountain Wild School (BMWS) is a newly developed wilderness integrated leadership development program located in the Blue Mountains, Ontario.

Our mission is to reconnect our future leaders with the natural world and with themselves. We seek to create experiences and learning opportunities for youth to develop confidence, resilience, curiosity, and courage in order to empower them to lead their peers, their school and their community to make the world a better place. Find out more at www.wildschool.ca.

Opportunity:

We are seeking a talented Leader In Training to join our team in a volunteer position and help us build our program beginning this summer with our Wild Day Camp. This program will run Monday to Friday from July 5th to August 21st – 9 to 4 pm.

Comfort with riding a bicycle on different terrain, paddling canoes/kayaks in flat water and hiking in the in Beaver valley area

Qualifications / Attributes:

- Energetic and passionate about working with kids and the outdoors.
- Experience with working with kids or baby sitting
- Experience and skills in adventure sports including: canoeing, stand up paddling, mountain biking, hiking, camping, etc.
- A willingness to learn and be open to varying challenges.
- First Aid certifications are an asset.

Please send a brief cover letter and resume to Sophie Grogan, Program Coordinator of Wild Camp at info@wildschool.ca.